

---

Reverence For Worksheet

---

As you weave your main character's elements throughout the story, consistency is key. With their Core Foundation, keeping the weave regularly visible, but not overpowering is the goal. One subtle way to bring this deep respect out is using moments of reverence.

Complete this worksheet to help you understand your protagonist's deeper beliefs better, and how to present them well in your story.

- Does your protagonist hold religious beliefs? _____
  - Do they pray to a higher power? _____
  - Is this shown in your story? _____
  - Do they consider God in their choices? _____
  - How do these beliefs influence their choices? _____
_____
  - How can you use a moment of reverence to show these foundational beliefs in your story? _____
_____
- Does your protagonist have a connection to the natural world? _____
  - Is there connection to nature broadly, or in a specific element? _____
    - Describe: _____
  - Does he/she 'escape' to nature? _____
    - How? When? _____
  - How can you use a moment of reverence to show this foundational connection in your story? _____
_____
- Does your protagonist feel deep respect to an individual, family member or friend? _____
  - How do they respond when they see/think of/interact with them? _____
_____
  - How can you use a moment of reverence to show this interpersonal honor? _____
_____
- Does your protagonist hold a deep respect for an idea, symbol, or nation? _____
  - How can you use a moment of reverence to show this understanding? _____
_____