

Unique Voice Worksheet

Your protagonist's voice encompasses their words, their thoughts, and their actions. Each element can be unique, and the combinations and patterns of this uniqueness is what makes characters shine.

Use this worksheet to plan, organize, and track the unique tidbits of character voice in your story.

Words: Your protagonist's words should have a unique style.

- Vocabulary:
- Sentence Structure:
- Accent/Impediment:
- Topic-centric:
- Speech Pattern:
- Dialogue Timing:

Thoughts: Your protagonist's thoughts should have a unique style.

- Vocabulary:
- Tone:
- Topic-centric:
- Self-talk Focus:
- Judgmental Style:
- Justification Style:

Actions: Your protagonist's actions should have a unique style.

- Kinesthetic Level:
- Reaction Time:
- Response Pattern:
- Engagement Criteria:
- Active Success Rate:
- Instinctual Response Sequence: